

1 Present continuous used for the future

Complete the sentences. Use the present continuous form of the verbs.

- We 're going to the museum tomorrow. (go)
- Ben skiing in November. (go)
- I Karen at ten o'clock. (meet)
- You a science test on Friday. (have)
- They their homework after dinner. (do)
- Anna tennis tomorrow. (not play)
- I dinner tonight. (not cook)
- Mum and Dad to the concert on Saturday. (not come)

2 Suggestions

Complete the suggestions with the words in the box.

ride	Why	Let's	Shall	don't	have
we	play

- Shall we have a pizza for lunch?
- have some fruit juice.
- don't we go for a walk this morning?
- Shall go swimming tomorrow?
- Why we go to the cinema this evening?
- Let's a computer game.
- we take some photos?
- Let's our bikes in the park.

3 going to: affirmative

Find a mistake in each sentence. Underline the mistakes and correct them.

- She going to visit the museum. She's.....
- Cathy and I is going to have a drink.
- My fathers going to buy a new car.
- They're going make some sandwiches.
- I going to watch TV after dinner.
- Jack going to buy some new jeans.
- We's going to visit our grandparents.
- Her brothers are going play football.

4 going to: negative

Complete the sentences. Use going to with 'm not, isn't or aren't.

- I 'm not going to listen to him.
- Mel sing this evening.
- We buy a lot of food.
- Naomi tidy her room.
- They watch a video.
- It rain today.
- I argue with you.
- We swim in the river.